

Radio station KLOVE serves my local community. I understand that an LPFM provider might soon be able to displace my local station. K-LOVE provides a great community service with wholesome, family friendly and spiritually uplifting music, free of cursing, sexual references and violence. Please insure that this incredible public servant is permitted to remain on the air, feeding and nourishing the development of my family and many, many others around my community.